

JOB & CAREER HELP

FROM LA COUNTY LIBRARY

Whether you're looking for a new job or career, making the transition to a new field, or just looking to learn a new skill, LA County Library is here to help!

COMPUTERS

- Use a library computer free of charge up to two hours per day
- 10 free printed pages per day
- Wireless printing from laptop or device
- Free Wi-Fi access in the library

WEBSITES

Our Employment Resources website has links to internet resources by topics:

- Finding Employment
- Applying for a Job
- Career Information

BOOKS

Books in the catalog by topics:

- Job Hunting
- Resume Writing
- Cover Letters
- Interviewing
- Changing Careers

ONLINE RESOURCES

With your LA County Library card, you have FREE access to these online resources:

Learn a New Skill with Lynda

- Learn business, software (Word, Excel, and more), technology & coding, and creative skills with top-quality courses taught by industry experts with Lynda.com

Career Transition

- Online career guidance center that walks you through the job-search process from beginning to end

Tutor.com Resume Review

- Free online review of resume & cover letter

Learning Express

- Job Help: Online tutorials, writing a resume and cover letters, and interview skills
- Test Preparation: Online practice tests for civil service, postal worker, law enforcement, and federal jobs
- Computer Skills: Online courses for Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint

LACountyLibrary.org

@LACountyLibrary

For ADA accommodations, call Monday – Thursday, 562.940.8462 (voice) or 562.940.8477 (TYY).

© 2018 County of Los Angeles. All Rights Reserved. LA County Library, the LA County Library logo, and all other LA County Library marks contained herein are trademarks of the County of Los Angeles. All other marks contained herein are the property of their respective owners.

9/2018